DRESS CODE

This rare and unusual opportunity with the wolves requires a strict dress code to ensure the safety of the Seacrest Wolves and the comfort of our tour participants. The wolves are very intelligent as well as playful and are always curious of many human dress items. They must be protected by preventing the opportunity to obtain various items as toys.

Pants – Long protective pants such as denim or khakis that provide full leg coverage. No leggings, nylon tights, or yoga pants.

Tops - Regular long sleeve or short sleeve pullover t-shirts that come up closer to the neck are best. No tank, low neck, spaghetti strap, halter or strapless tops that leave the chest and arm areas unprotected.

Shoes – Closed toe; such as basic tennis shoes are best. No leather, rubber, plastic, or vinyl material. No crocs, boots, or high heels.

Outerwear and Gloves – Pullover sweatshirt or hoodie (with ties tucked in) are best in winter months. No furry gloves, hats, boots, neck wraps, or head gear should be worn. Non-furry gloves are allowed.

Headgear – It is not recommended that Seacrest guests wear headgear on any tour. The wolves are very playful and often see them as toys to play with. Most of the tour areas are shady and would not require a hat to be comfortable. For your safety: Leather, vinyl, suede, down or fur based material and items are not permitted. Just wear your tennis shoes.

The following personal items cannot be brought inside the wolf enclosures:

Nonprescription sunglasses**, backpacks**, water bottles**, medical prescriptions, vapor products such as e-cigarettes or vaporizers, cigarettes, chewing tobacco, gum, candy, cell phones** and digital cameras**. Only disposable camera's are allowed in the wolf enclosures for the general public. No photos are allowed to be taken of the wolves through the fences with digital cameras or cell phones prior to, during, or after all tours at any time.

**These personal items are allowed in the Small Animal Adventure only.

WE ARE UNABLE TO PERMIT ANYONE UNDER THE AGE OF 10 INSIDE ENCLOSURES FOR ANY TOUR. All ages may experience the wonderful Small Animal Adventure that follows the Wolf Encounter Tour by reservation.
